FROM THE PRINCIPAL'S OFFICE

School Assembly – Well done to the Year 3/4 class for running a great assembly last Friday. This Friday’s assembly will be run by Mrs Wedgwood’s class and will start at 11.00 am.

Kinder Orientation – Last Wednesday, the new Kinder students for 2015 took part in their final orientation visit before starting school next year. It was a great day, and was very well received by everyone. Well done to Miss Mills for organising everything and to Tracy Swan for her great support.

If you have any questions, or would like an interview, please don’t hesitate to contact myself or Miss Mills. Enrolments for 2015 are now being taken. Please see the school office for forms.

Schools Spectacular – We wish both Alanah Black and Jasmyn Adams all the very best when they take part in the Schools Spectacular to be held at Sydney’s Entertainment Centre from Wednesday 26 to Saturday 29 November. The girls will be part of a 1500 student choir. That’s indeed a lot of voices! They will be part of three shows and will have an awesome time. The girls can be very proud of themselves for being chosen and I know they will represent our school proudly. I wish them both the very best as they participate in a “once in a lifetime opportunity”. I look forward to hearing all about it when they return. Well done, girls!!

Public Speaking – Well done to the students who were involved early this week with public speaking. A great effort by all of you – very skillful and brave indeed! As I said to all the students earlier this week, they can all be very proud of their efforts, especially for participating.

Creative Catchment Kids Presentation – Well done to the students involved and for representing our school. They have done a great job and can be very pleased with their efforts.

Anti-Bullying Program – Every week I want to try and put information in the newsletter to give parents more support to help work with their children about bullying.

Strategies to Deal with Bullies – Victims should:
1. Stay calm
2. Stand strong
3. Respond confidently
4. Walk away
5. Report to someone you trust
How can I help my child stay safe online?

Young people usually don’t discuss with adults social problems they experience online for fear they will have their access to the internet or mobile phone taken away from them. Therefore, it is recommended that each family establish a ‘Family Agreement’ for use of the Internet and mobile phones.

When negotiating a family agreement, the most important consideration is that it works for your family. Having an effective family agreement is about building a positive relationship with your child. It ensures that technology can be enjoyed in a safe and mutually acceptable manner. Young people understand that they are responsible for their behaviour online. As such, the agreement should include consequences for unsafe or unacceptable use of technology (example agreements are available on the ACMA website): http://www.cybersmart.gov.au/

Discuss with your child what they think are reasonable consequences if the agreement is broken. The most effective agreements are those where mutual decisions are made, in negotiation with your child. Whilst it is important to discuss all technologies with your children, the final agreement needs to be clear, simple, concise and manageable and should be reviewed regularly.

The simplest way
...stay healthy over Summer.

Summertime = BBQ time in Australia.
Here are five ways to make your barbies as healthy and delicious as possible.

- Limit or avoid processed meat like sausages and bacon.
- Use lean cuts of meat.
- Make sure half your plate is filled with vegies.
- Cook vegies like eggplant, zucchini and capsicum straight on the bbq (or as part of the kebab in picture).
- Make a few salads to serve on the side.
- Freezing fruits like grapes and berries make a delicious treat for a dessert on a hot day.
